H. H. Block Nomination Form
(to be completed by a faculty member)

Background:

The H.H. Block Construction Education Fund was established in 1968 through efforts of the Student Contractor and Builders Association. The fund was established in honor of H.H. Block, Professor Emeritus and first Chairman of the Department of Building Construction. The fund is now a memorial to H.H. Block who set high standards of personal and professional integrity and ethics. The purpose of this award is to recognize student leadership, scholarship, and character within the School.

DATE:

H.H. BLOCK AWARDS COMMITTEE
School of Building Construction
University of Florida

Gentlemen:

I wish to nominate _____ for the H.H. Block Award, because in my opinion he/she is qualified as shown specifically under one or more of the considerations I have indicated below. (Note: attach additional sheets or exhibits as needed)

(1) Participation and responsibility in non-academic department-oriented activities.

(2) Demonstrated a high standard of personal integrity and ethics.

(3) Shown concern for the education and development of his/her fellow students.

Very truly yours,
