The Rinker School has several options for high school graduates to obtain a Bachelor in Construction Management. To be considered for any of the options, you must first apply as a freshman to University of Florida. Once you apply as a freshman, your application will be considered for not just regular freshman admission, it will also be considered for the following programs and scholarships:

Gator Design and Construction (GDC) @ SFC: Students would attend Santa Fe College (SFC) in Gainesville for the first three semesters but would obtain UF student status, if meet requirements, after the first semester. For additional information on this program:
http://www.dcp.ufl.edu/gdc

Pathway to Campus Enrollment (PACE): Students would start their degree online and then transition into on campus students usually within 2-3 semesters. For additional information on this program:
http://www.admissions.ufl.edu/pace/

BCN Alumni Scholarship for Freshman: If you are admitted to UF and indicate construction management as your major, you will be considered for the freshman scholarship. For additional information:
http://www.bcn.ufl.edu/academics/undergraduate/construction-management/prospective-students/
Select the “Freshman Scholarship Application”

Architecture, Construction and Engineering (ACE) freshman scholarship: If you are admitted to UF and indicated on your freshman application that you were part of an ACE program and select construction management as your major, you will be considered for the ACE freshman scholarship. For additional information:

To apply as a Transfer student to the University of Florida’s Rinker School of Construction Management, you will need to:

- Meet UF’s foreign language requirement
- Obtain an AA degree
- Complete the prerequisite/preprofessional coursework needed for the Rinker School:
http://www.bcn.ufl.edu/transferable-coursework-from-other-florida-schools/
- Submit your SAT/ACT score
- Consideration is also given to the number of prerequisite/preprofessional courses remaining, as well as the applicant’s letter of intent. See link below for required letter of intent:

When you are in your last semester of prerequisite and AA degree coursework, please fill out the UF transfer application online at:
http://www.admissions.ufl.edu/start.html

Application deadlines
March 1—Fall semester
September 1—Spring semester

BCN Alumni Scholarship for Transfer Students: Scholarships are available for transfer students. When you fill out the UF transfer application also fill out the transfer student scholarship. For additional information and scholarship application:
